ALABAMA'S DISTRICT CIVIL COURT

District Civil is a special civil division of the District Court where individuals, as well as businesses, can settle disputes and disagreements. The maximum amount you may sue or be sued for is $3,000.01 to $10,000.00. There are no juries and you may appear before the judge with or without an attorney but, an attorney is recommended.

Should you file a District Civil Case?

Before you file a claim, you should contact the person(s) or business you plan to sue and attempt to settle your dispute out of court. This effort may save you both time and money.

You should, also, find out if the person(s) or business you plan to sue has any money or assets to pay your claims, if you should win. Otherwise, you may have a difficult time collecting on a court judgment. Remember, it is up to you, not the court, to take further legal action against the person(s) or business if they do not pay the judgment.

Who can use District Civil Court?

An individual who has reached the age of 19, a partnership, or a corporation may file a claim. If a partnership files without an attorney, the person representing the partnership must be a partner or employee of the partnership. A corporation must be represented by an attorney.

How do you file a District Civil Case?

The case should be filed with the District Civil Division of the District Court in the county where the person or business you wish to sue lives or has an office. The Court Clerk has this form. The Court Clerk cannot give you legal advice. You may have another individual help you complete the forms if you are physically unable to fill them out yourself. Court personnel are not permitted to do this for you.

Once you complete the complaint, you become the "plaintiff" in the case and the person you are suing is the "defendant". It is the responsibility of the plaintiff to provide a good and proper address for each defendant. The complaint cannot be served if this information has not been provided to the Court.

Filing fees are non-refundable. You must pay a filing fee at the time the claim is filed. If you cannot afford to prepay this fee, you may complete an Affidavit of Substantial Hardship form. This affidavit must be filed at the time you file your case. If granted by the Judge, court costs will be assessed at the conclusion of the case. You may be required to pay the total costs at that time.

The clerk will assign you a case number and you should use this number whenever you contact the court concerning your case.

What happens after the claim is filed?

Once the forms are completed and presented to the Clerk for filing, this office will process the complaint for service on the defendant(s) by the sheriff's department. If you prefer service by certified mail, or some other service type, this should be noted on the complaint. Any applicable service fees must be paid in advance by the plaintiff. You will be notified of the service date by mail with a computer printout. Service dates are not given via telephone. The defendant has 14 days to file an answer. Upon service of the defendant(s) the case will be set for trial on the next available court date after the 14 days. If the defendant files an answer a copy will be mailed to you. If the defendant(s) agrees to the complaint and files an answer of consent, the Judge may enter a consent judgment in favor of the plaintiff against the defendant(s). In some cases, the case may be set for trial for the plaintiff to prove the amount of the damages or amount of claim.

If the defendant(s) fails to file an answer within 14 days, the plaintiff may request a judgment by default.

All parties to a district civil case are encouraged to try and reach a settlement agreement prior to trial. All settlement agreements should be in writing and should state who is to pay the court costs. If the defendant(s) does not agree to pay the court costs as part of the settlement, the plaintiff will be responsible.

If a settlement agreement is reached before the trial, the plaintiff must immediately notify the clerk, in writing, so that the trial can be cancelled. Faxes and phone calls are not accepted.

What should you do to prepare for the trial?

If an agreement cannot be reached, you assemble all papers, receipts, bills, sales tickets, estimates, photographs, etc., that include information concerning your case.

You should write down the details and facts of the case to assist you in telling your side of the story at the trial.

You may bring any witnesses you feel can help substantiate your case. If there is any reason to believe a witness will not, or can not voluntarily appear, you may ask the clerk to issue a witness subpoena requiring that person to appear. You will be required to pay a witness subpoena fee at the time of the request. Requests must be in writing.

What happens at the trial?

BE ON TIME. Russell County cases are always set on Eastern Standard Time. If you are late, the judge may dismiss your case. If an emergency arises that may prevent you from appearing at the trial, you MUST inform the clerk, in writing, as soon as possible and request a continuance (delay) of the trial.

A trial in District Civil Court is an informal hearing before the judge. There is no jury. When the case is called, the plaintiff will present his/her evidence and his/her witnesses. The defendant(s) will then present his/her evidence, and call his/her witnesses.

After hearing both sides of the case and looking at the evidence, the judge will make a decision and render a judgment based on the law and the facts presented. In some cases, the decision is made while you are before the Court. However, the Judge may take your case under advisement and enter an Order at a later date. You will be mailed a copy of the Judge's order. It is important that all parties maintain a current mailing address and phone number on file with the Circuit Clerk's office.

What can you do if you disagree with the Court's judgment?

If you disagree with the Court's decision, you may appeal the case by filing a NOTICE OF APPEAL form with the clerk of the District Court within 14 days after the date of the judgment. This form may be obtained from the Circuit Clerk's office. Appeal costs include filing fees and possibly a bond (lower court costs).

You may need the assistance of an attorney if you choose to appeal. The simplified procedures of District court do not apply in Circuit Court.

If you, the plaintiff, win, how do you collect the judgment?

The plaintiff cannot initiate any legal proceeding until the 14 day appeal time has expired. If the defendant(s) does not pay the judgment or make satisfactory arrangements, it is up to the plaintiff to file one of the following actions in an attempt to collect the amount of the judgment:

- Garnishment of Wages--Must include the name and address of the employer. Some employers require that the defendant's social security number be stated on the garnishment form. State and Federal law prohibits the garnishment of some income, such as social security. The Clerk's office cannot advise you as to your ability to collect.
- Garnishment of Bank Account--Must include the correct name and address of bank.
- Execution for Levy on Property--Obtain a court order authorizing the sheriff to pick up any property belonging to the defendant(s) and sell it to satisfy the judgment. The property levied cannot be under a recorded mortgage (plaintiff can check with the probate court record room for recordings).

All of the above actions require an additional filing fee. The clerk can give you the necessary forms: but the method of collection may become involved. It is strongly suggested that you consult with an attorney for explanation of collection procedures and to assist you in filing the appropriate forms. The court clerk cannot give you legal advice.

It is important to mention, it is easier to get a judgment than it is to collect on it. A judgment is not a guarantee of collection. If the defendant(s) does not work, own property, or is self employed, it is very difficult to collect.

If you do not understand the proceeding, you should contact an attorney for assistance. You have certain legal rights and an attorney can explain these rights to you. The court clerk cannot give legal advice.
